

Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

Red Arrows in the Night

By Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

The Scarlet Archer of Agincourt is claimed by the Erkenwold's as their family ghost. Tradition held that the death of an important Erkenwold was always heralded by the apparition of the Scarlet Archer. Now in the early years of WWII, the archer has made an appearance on the family estate on the US coast. Is it a ghost or something more sinister, and what does he or she want?

This mystery novel was written by Daniel A Lord, S.J., who was a popular American Catholic writer. The subjects of the works in his bibliography range from religion, humor, plays, songs, mysteries and even politics. His most influential work was possibly in drafting the 1930 Production Code for motion pictures.

Read by Maria Therese. Total running time: 03:50:13

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.

Cover art from original book cover. Cover design by Maria Therese. This design is in the public domain.

LibriVox

Red Arrows in the Night

Daniel A. Lord, S.J.

Red Arrows in the Night